A healthy life is possible with a perfect harmony and balance in human body.

It is cell communication.

Cell
communication
having a vital
importance for
our body.

In order to maintain the cell
communication in
the body properly,
alternative
treatment and
therapy methods
have developed
since centuries.

Additional to that
treatments, minerals are also used to support
body cell
communication and to ensure body relaxation.

Lack of cell communication in the body can cause many negative impacts like stress, tiredness and displeasure.

On the other hand, a strong body cell communication will bring a healthy life, performance, concentration and zest.

This is why, Weavers developed the miraculous Biorytmic fabric.

Live life at its biorhythm!

Many reasons like stress, work pace in daily lives, old age, lack of sleep, tiredness and exhaustion causes lack of cell communication in the body.

A man and a woman are sitting on a light-colored sofa, laughing heartily. The man, on the left, is wearing a red and white checkered shirt and a watch. The woman, on the right, is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt and holding a white mug. A large green circle is overlaid on the image, containing text.

Due to its special geometric structure, activating the meridians in the body with the vibration energy the minerals in its body spreads Biorytmic keeps the body cell communication at its optimum. Helping the person to feel more comfortable and rejuvenated by decreasing the body stress while seated, it offers a perfect comfort atmosphere to regulate the biorhythm.
